PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO

To the honorable, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States: Henry J. Fant, pro se, the petitioner herein, prays that a writ of certiorari issue to review the judgment of the Supreme Court of Ohio entered in the above entitled case on April 4, 1990 erroneously creating an issue not presented nor briefed on appeal and totally ignoring the issue briefed by the petitioner on appeal.

OPINION BELOW

The erroneous JUDGMENT ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio is reproduced at Appendix A, page 1a and is reported at 50 Ohio St.3d.72. The REHEARING ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio is reported in Ohio Official Reports, Advance Sheets, Vol. 51, No.4, June 4, 1990, page 705, and is reproduced at Appendix A, page 5a.

JURISDICTION

The REHEARING ENTRY of the Supreme Court of Ohio was entered on May 16, 1990. Petitioner Fant is a native born citizen of the United States and resides in the state of Ohio. This case involves the first section of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States which provides as follows:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States,, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law."

STATUTES INVOLVED

The statutes involved are Ohio Revised Code 2705.02(A) which is quoted below:

"A person guilty of any of the following act may be punish for contempt:

(A) Disobedience of, or resistance to, a lawful writ, process, order, rule, judgment, or command of a court or an officer."

The relevant part of Ohio Public Records Law, being R. C. 149.43(B) is also quoted below:

"All public records shall be promptly prepared and made available for inspection to any person at all reasonable times during regular business hours. Upon request, a person responsible for public records shall make copies available at cost, within a reasonable period of time..."

OF THE
COMMISSIONER OF THE LAND OFFICE
IN RESPONSE TO A RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE SENATE
MAY 1, 1899.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On July 12, 1988, Henry J. Fant (petitioner), filed a complaint for writ of mandamus against the Board of Trustees, Regional Transit Authority (respondent), seeking the permission of the respondent to review and/or make copies of the transfer rules of the respondent as those rules existed on July 13, 1986 and to review and/or make copies of the personnel file of bus operator Maggie Watkins.

On February 12, 1989, the trial court granted in part and denied in part the petitioner's motion for summary judgment. (See Appendix, page 6a.) Costs was assessed against the respondent. (Appendix, page 8a)

During the default inspection of the personnel file of Maggie Watkins, a dispute arose between the parties as to the authenticity of the records proffered and as to the legality of respondent admitting to removing and withholding that portion of Watkins' personnel records involving the complaint filed with the respondent by petitioner Fant against Maggie Watkins. Petitioner Fant also were not furnished with the transfer rules in effect as of July 13, 1986. As a result of said disagreement between the parties, petitioner Fant filed a motion in the trial court on May 31, 1989 requesting aid in execution of judgment. The trial court denied said motion on August 15, 1989 on the alleged grounds that petitioner:

" ... failed to provide any authority in support of his motion."

(Appendix, page 7a)

The foregoing decision was appealed to the Supreme Court of Ohio on September 14, 1989 in which petitioner's sole proposition of law briefed the inherent powers of a court to enforce its own judgment entries.

The Supreme Court of Ohio filed a JUDGMENT ENTRY on April 4, 1990 erroneously ruling upon an issue not presented nor briefed by petitioner Fant on appeal, to wit:

with the responsibility of maintaining the highest quality of service. It is our policy to provide the best possible service to our customers.
We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers.

Our commitment to service is reflected in our policies and procedures. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers.
We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers. We are committed to providing the highest quality of service to our customers.

"R.C. 149.43(C) authorizes only 'attorney fees' not compensation to pro se litigants."

In addition, the Supreme Court of Ohio erroneously claimed in its MANDATE to the trial court that an "Affidavit of Poverty filed." Finally, the Supreme Court did not rule upon the issue of the authority of the trial court to enforce its own judgment entry which was briefed by petitioner Fant.

The respondent never made an appearance in the Supreme Court of Ohio.

By way of Motion for Rehearing, the petitioner clearly put the Supreme Court of Ohio on notice of its erroneous JUDGMENT ENTRY to no avail. (Appendix, page 5a.)

It is from said due process violation that the petitioner herein appeals to this honorable court.

REASONS FOR GRANTING REVIEW

"A court has authority both under R.C. 2705.02(A) and on the basis of its inherent powers to punish the disobedience of its order with contempt proceedings." Zakany v. Zakany (1984), 9 Ohio St.3d 192.

The JUDGMENT ENTRY filed by the Supreme Court of Ohio in the case sub judice is a clear violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

The Cuyahoga County Court of Appeals do not need any one whomsoever to tell the court of its authority to enforce its own judgment entries. The Supreme Court of Ohio set forth the rights of the courts to enforce its own judgment entry in Zakany, supra; not to mention the "inherent powers" of a court to enforce its own judgment entries.

This honorable Court should not permit the Supreme Court of Ohio to avoid the Due Process mandate of the Constitution of the United States by erroneously creating and and ruling upon an issue not presented nor briefed by petitioner Fant on appeal. As cited in petitioner's Motion for Rehearing, Issues not raised in the trial court cannot be raised for the first time in a reviewing court. Szymanski v. Halle's Department Store (1980), 63 Ohio ST.2d 195; Blausey v. Stein (1980), 61 Ohio St.2d 264.

The Supreme Court of Ohio was put on notice of its Due Process violation by way of petitioner's Motion for Rehearing filed in the action. In addition, petitioner quotes from page 2 of said Motion for Rehearing:

"This appeal has absolutely nothing to do with "attorney fees" and this court very well knows that is a true statement. This appeal is from the refusal of the court of appeals to enforce it own judgment entry filed in the case at bar. It is significant to note that appellant Fant's appeal stands unchallenged as the appellee R.T.A did not even bother to file so much as an appearance in this appeal, not to mention an opposing brief."

The court of appeals said in State v. Khong (1985), 29 Ohio App.3d 19, 26 that:

"Proceeding in contempt are sua generis in the law ... Contempt proceedings are means through which the court enforce their lawful orders. The power to punish for contempt is said to be inherent in the court and to exist independently from express constitutional provision or legislature enactment." Citing Cincinnati v. Cincinnati District Council 51 (1973, 35 Ohio St.2d 197,201, certiorari denied (1974), 415 U.S. 994.

CONCLUSIONS

The courts below should not be allowed to make a mockery of the Due Process Clause of the Constitution of the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY J. FANT, pro se
